

COVID-19: IMPORTANT NOTICE

Dear partner,

Due to the exceptional situation we are facing at the moment, Siccis S.A. would like to communicate that our company has adopted all required measures regarding health and safety, and we shall continue working and serving customers and other partners/collaborators.

Our sales and administration departments are currently working at home, and are available preferably by e-mail. While manufacturing and warehouse/expeditions departments continue with their usual activity in our facilities strictly following the regulation.

Any meeting or commercial visit is canceled until further notice.

Business hours remain without change.

Any change in above measures will be communicated as soon as possible.

We remain at your disposal and are thankful for your collaboration.
